

A QUIZ TO ACCOMPANY
“DRUNK SEX OR DATE RAPE: CAN YOU TELL THE DIFFERENCE?”

1. True or False: Consent is always valid when it is given.
2. True or False: The law requires that consent must be communicated verbally.
3. Choose the most correct answer. It is against the law to have sex with someone who is:
  - a. Impaired by alcohol or other drugs
  - b. Intoxicated by alcohol or other drugs
  - c. Under the influence of alcohol or other drugs
  - d. Incapacitated by alcohol or other drugs
4. If you have sex with someone who has taken GHB, but you are not aware that they have taken it and there is no indication by their behavior that they have taken GHB, have you violated the law? Yes or No.
5. If a woman has sex with a man whom she knows to be incapacitated, does this violate the law? Yes or no.
6. Choose the most correct answer. Someone is most likely to be incapacitated if:
  - a. Their BAC is .08
  - b. They are throwing up
  - c. They are unconscious
  - d. They have never had alcohol before
7. Vomiting as a result of consuming alcohol means:
  - a. You need to go to the hospital
  - b. Your body is telling you it has consumed more alcohol than it can handle
  - c. You have thrown up all the alcohol and can start drinking again
  - d. You are a lightweight
8. True or False: All drunk sex is date rape.
9. If you cannot tell if someone is blacking out, you should:
  - a. Assume they are good to go
  - b. Ask them if they are
  - c. Assume they are in no condition for sex
  - d. Have sex with them, but make sure not to leave your name and number
10. The law requires consent to be:
  - a. A verbal agreement
  - b. A signed contract
  - c. An informed, freely given permission
  - d. Implied