MANAGEMENT (NCHERM) www.ncherp.org

ANNOUNCES AN UPCOMING WEBINAR

FRIDAY, JUNE 8TH, 2007
1:00—2:30pm Eastern Daylight Time

Legal Issues for Campus Counselors and Therapists

Presented by:

Brett A. Sokolow, J.D. and Carolyn Reinach Wolf, Esq.

NCHERM is a leader in providing you with seminars that are relevant, timely and full of useful practice tips.

Every campus struggles with questions about what counselors should know, what they should disclose to others, and how should they straddle the sometimes divided loyalties between their employment obligations and their professional ethics. In this webinar, we'll offer a legal update on pressing issues for campus counselors and therapists, including:

- Confidentiality of Records;
- Clarification of FERPA: fact/fiction;
- Release of information between and among health care providers and HIPAA
- Administrators and law enforcement;
- Parental notification;
- Duty to warn;
- Documentation of Records;
- Campus Risk Management;
- Security and Safety Concerns: Before and During a Crisis.

Join us for this event and get an update on these crucial issues and more. Pose your own questions to the presenters throughout the event.

HOW A WEBINAR WORKS

Webinars are cost-effective because everything you need is already in your office -- a telephone and a computer. Webinars are large-group conference calls where you can follow along online with our PowerPoint. You can even project the PowerPoint via an LCD projector for group participation by your staff. Each registrant can call in from one telephone line on campus, so you might arrange to use a phone in a conference room, where your staff and administrators can listen and participate via speakerphone. You can also purchase additional lines for multiple campus call-in locations for a moderate surcharge. You will receive a call-in 800 number and a PIN for the day of the event. Once you join the call, you will be able to hear the presenters and ask questions via phone, while viewing the Power Point online. We do not broadcast audio over the Internet, so you will need both a telephone and an Internet connection. Once you register, you will receive a confirmation email the week before the event, containing the call-in and PIN numbers, as well as the URL for the PowerPoint.

INTENDED PARTICIPANTS:

- Campus counselors -- psychologists, therapists, social workers and psychiatrists
